

Snow Week Snows Out

Overenthusiastic Juniors provided a blizzard and a snow holiday as a special treat for their Snow Week, January 16-20. However, most of their planned activities were snowed out too. No snow sculptures were carved, no dog sleds were raced, and Big Sweater Day bombed out, except for a few embarrassed students.

Friday's Snow Week dance was a success, though, ruled by Snow King Mark Omlie and his Queen, JoAnn Chandlee.

Too much snow to make a snowman.

King Mark crowns Queen Joey.

Snowed in, ambitious student attempts to tunnel out.

Kris Nelson and Dale Hultgren hollow out a drift for the American Eagle Headquarters.

Wayzata Celebrates With New Orleans

Wayzata's first annual Mardi Gras Ball, sponsored by the Drama Club, was held February 4 with music by the Messengers.

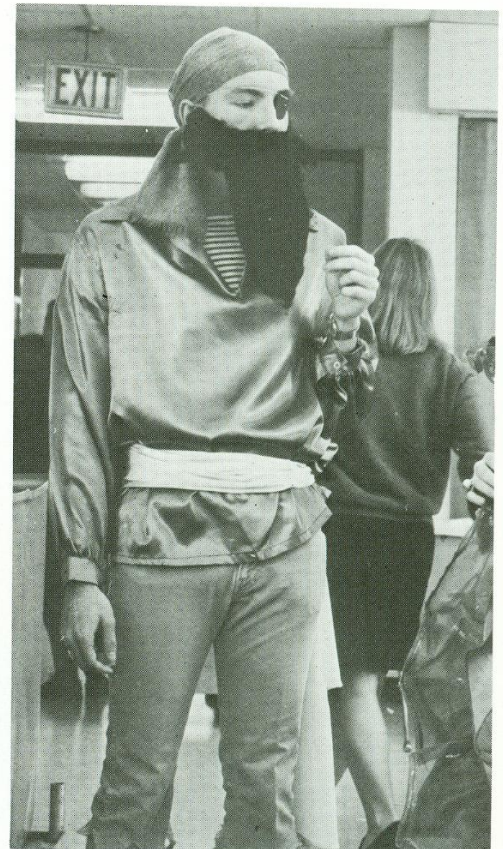

A parade of weird costumes at lunch the Friday before, including a bull that mooed, propelled by Nadine Hutchings and Jill Clark, Jackie Keith as a glittering Spaniard, Doug Doty, a fearsome pirate, and many others, brought on even weirder costumes for the Saturday dance.

Odd costumes won prizes; l. to r. J. Clark and N. Hutchings (under bull) Mr. Sheehy, J. Keith, and Raggedy Andy.

Mardi Gras promotion was done during lunch.

Blackjack the Pirate sacks the lunchroom. Doug Doty